

Decree of the Apostolic Penitentiary

A plenary indulgence is granted to the following:

1) To those inflicted with the virus, or quarantined in hospitals or homes, who in a spirit of detachment from sin unite themselves spiritually to the celebration of Mass via the media, or who pray the Rosary, or who make the Stations of the Cross or who engage in other forms of authentic devotion.

2) A plenary indulgence is also granted to those inflicted who pray the Creed (Nicene or Apostles' Creed) and a Hail Mary.

3) A plenary indulgence is also granted to health-care workers, family members and all those who exposing themselves to the risk of contagion care for the sick.

4) A plenary indulgence is also granted to the faithful who make a visit to the Blessed Sacrament (Eucharistic Adoration) or pray the Holy Rosary or make the Stations of the Cross or pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, engaging in these devotions while praying for an end to the pandemic.

(Decree on behalf of the Pope is signed by Card. Mauro Piacenza, Major Penitentiary, & Fr Krzysztof Nykiel, Regent)

The plenary indulgence is granted under the usual conditions:

- 1) Prayer for the Pope
- 2) Confession
- 3) Holy Communion

(The latter two conditions may be fulfilled when physically possible.)
